

Pardon Man Who Stole 32 Years Ago And Fled From Home

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 23.—Gov. Brough, late Thursday, issued a pardon to W. S. Gibson, 44, now a resident of British Columbia, who in 1878 was convicted in Fort Smith of burglary. Gibson was 22 when he was convicted and sentenced to serve 15 years in the penitentiary. He escaped from jail and fled westward. For many years he led the life of a farmer, trader and miner in Stephens county, Wash. Recently he moved to British Columbia.

In his petition Gibson said that he wished to visit his old home and relatives in Missouri and added: "Petitioner has ever carried with him a keen sense of his youthful folly and has endeavored a life of penance and remorse in comparison with the full term of the light punishment."

The petition was presented to Gov. Brough by former United States Senator George Turner of Washington.

Life For McGill For Killing Wife

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 23.—Eliah McGill will spend the balance of his natural life behind the walls of the state penitentiary for killing his wife, Mary McGill, early on the morning of June 16, if the court sentence stands.

Life imprisonment was the sentence given by the jury which last night brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree with mitigating circumstances.

Facing two of his own children on the witness stand, McGill heard the dying words of his wife repeated by which she fixed the identity of himself as her slayer. He was stoical to the extreme, showing an attitude of indifference to the statements of witness after witness and the bitter arraignment of the state attorneys in their argument of the case to the jury at the close of the trial. During the time the jury was out on its deliberations he laughed and talked with friends who gathered outside the prisoner's cage in the court room.

W. H. CHISHOLM DIES DESPITE SON'S BLOOD

Transfusing of the blood of his son, W. P. Chisholm, failed to save the life of William H. Chisholm, 78, who died at St. Joseph's hospital following an operation. Mr. Chisholm was a Confederate veteran, and was engaged in farming at Ripley, Tenn., when brought to St. Joseph's hospital for the operation.

Mr. Chisholm is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mollie Chisholm; two sons, W. H. and W. D. Chisholm; and a daughter, Mrs. Alice Brown. The body was taken late Thursday to Ripley for burial.

BOLSHEVIKI FORCE SOLIDARTY PLEDGE

PARIS, July 23.—The French socialist leaders, Marcel Cachin and St. Front, before being permitted to attend the sessions of the congress of the third international at Moscow, according to information received from Stockholm by the Echo de Paris, were obliged to sign a declaration of solidarity with the Bolsheviks, espousing the parliamentary regime, recognizing the legitimacy of the proletarian dictatorship and promising to prepare the French proletariat for Russian methods. The Stockholm message adds that the executive committee of the congress has sent an appeal to the Oriental countries to convene a Bolshevik congress at Bakou with delegates from Persia, Armenia, Turkey, India, Syria and Arabia in attendance.

CHICAGO INESCAPABLY WET, SAYS DALRYMPLE

CHICAGO, July 23.—According to Maj. Dalrymple, prohibition officer of this district, "Chicago is inescapably wet."

"Chicago is wetter today than it was before the Volstead act went into effect last January," he asserted. "There is not only more beer for sale but it is easier to get. More than half the saloons still open are selling to all comers."

The major's force consists of only 21 men, or one man for every 125,000 citizens of Chicago, and he wants a bigger force.

M. M. Gayford, assistant national prohibition commissioner, whose headquarters are in Washington, says, however, that Chicago is not alone in its moist iniquity. Other American cities are guilty of indulgence in liquor, especially the larger cities and particularly those with a large alien population where public sentiment is not in sympathy with strict enforcement of the prohibition law.

BANDITS CONFESS.

MARSHALL, Ill., July 23.—Two men under arrest here today confessed, according to Sheriff W. A. Byral, they had participated in the robbery of the bank of St. Marie, at St. Marie Wednesday, and revealed the name of the third bandit, who is still at large. With the exception of $100 found on the two prisoners, the third bandit has the remainder of the loot, which was $20,000 in liberty bonds and $1,800 in cash. It was said the prisoners said they were Roy Thompson, 17 years old, and Arthur Grove, 21, of Paris, Ill.

Winter Vacations Needed, Says Expert

"The vitality of the people is at an ebb in midwinter as it is in the hot months of the summer," said Dr. Evans.

RESORT TO ABSENTEE VOTING IN MISSISSIPPI

CRYSTAL SPRINGS, Miss., July 23. (Sp.)—The new Mississippi law giving to the "absent voter" the right to vote was invoked for the first time here recently, when Clyde Brown, a citizen of Hattiesburg, who has been here with his father for some days, made out the proper papers and forwarded his vote to Hattiesburg to be cast in the municipal election that was held in that city Tuesday.

This is the first time in the history of the politics of the county where a citizen voted at an election when he was away from the polling booth at the time of casting his vote. No votes of the kind were used in the municipal election here, but the law is not generally known as yet, as it was recently passed at the last legislature.

Put Your Home Management On A Business Basis

Systematize Buying Your Daily Grocery Needs

As a matter of common sense, YOUR HOME MANAGEMENT, in these days of "high rents and taxes," scarcity of servants and high prices, should be conducted along "business lines."

It is "good business" to SAVE MONEY SENSIBLY and regularly—TO SUPERVISE the buying of groceries for your home if not done "in person"—and to see that you get the RIGHT SORT OF GOODS, correct weights, and the RIGHT PRICES ON EVERYTHING, and get everything you pay for.

It is NOT good judgment, for example, to save a few cents on a few articles and "lose it back" on the purchase of MANY OTHER ITEMS along with it—something YOU CANNOT DO at a Bowers Store.

Any child can "shop for you" satisfactorily—ANYONE YOU MAY SEND, in fact, to any Bowers Store, and if a mistake is made or the goods are not satisfactory the matter will be quickly adjusted—Bowers spells protection.

Money saving, RIGHT PRICES and correct weights ON EVERYTHING you buy, whether it is a can of corn or a gallon of oil, a dollar's worth or a dime's worth, a $5.00 delivery order or "bought by a child" sent with a list of your requirements—the Bowers Stores are DEPENDABLE.

Systematize your buying, and it will not be necessary to buy SO OFTEN with a consequent LOSS OF TIME, "which is money."

Consider well the QUALITY YOU RECEIVE as well as the prices, and you will AVOID WASTE.

—Just a Few "Money Savers"—

Our prices are not quoted to INDUCE OVER-BUYING or with the hope of attracting you to our stores with "leaders" in order to sell OTHER ITEMS at increased profits.
